FASHIONS for FALL of 1916

Autumn Fashions Now Make Their Bow

Autumn is just around the corner! The new fashions for the fall season are now all here. Rosenwald's is in autumn costume and the note of autumn is reverberating through the broad aisles of this great store. Each section has striven to surpass all former efforts and presents a delightfully fresh, crisp new display of the Millinery, Suits, Dresses, Coats and Gowns which fashion has decreed to be the correct mode.

Rosenwald's invites you to come and see the new things. The millinery is entrancing; the suits proclaim a new silhouette. The dresses are delightfully charming. The blouses run the whole gamut of color and fancy. The shoes are sensibly different, while the silks and dress materials are an inspiration to any one who will make or have her own original clothing made.

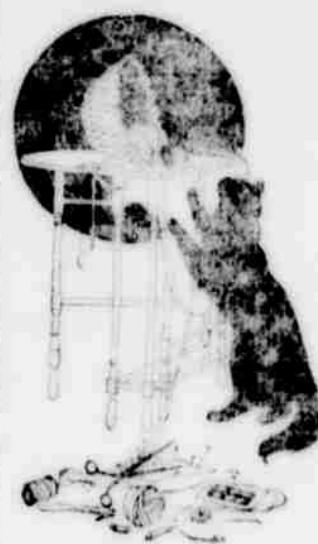

Pieces! As usual, the lowest consistent with quality.

Sewing Needfuls in the Notion Sale

An old adage says: One never misses the water till the well runs dry; and, by the same token one never so fully realizes the value of reliable sewing room helps, until one finds that she has on hand some trinkets at a supposedly cheap price, but which only shocked their unorthodoxy. Actually expensive, because the money was as good as thrown away, besides time lost, sewing spoiled and vexation a-plenty! Get the good kind!

MUNSING WEAR

IT'S TRUE ECONOMY TO BUY THE BEST

Munsing Underwear is the best. It will wear longer, wash better, fit and cover the form more perfectly, and give more real solid comfort and satisfaction than any other underwear on the market. It's fine in quality—fine enough to suit the most fastidious. Its first cost is not nearly as great as the cost of much of the "fad" underwear, and it's much more sensible and serviceable. It's made to stand the test of actual use. Each trip to the laundry improves its appearance and texture. Its durability and washability, its perfection of fit and finish, its moderation—these are the points that command it. Buy some Munsing Suits and wear a Munsing Smile.

"How Beautiful These Beds Would Look in My Home!"

And today they do. The women who said that bought them. Another furniture dealer who looked at them said: "No one but SIMMONS could make such remarkable values to sell for the price."

You will find that we have styles of these new steel beds here that are just exactly what you have been looking for and in the charming new finishes that we long so much talked about. These are the same beds you have seen advertised in the Ladies' Home Journal and Saturday Evening Post—the new light-weight beds of burnished steel, in quaint canopies and delightful soft timewares. Be sure to use them.

KNOX TO HAVE CHARGE OF PROSECUTIONS IN BLACKMAILING CASES

Assistant Attorney General of New York Is Selected for the Job; Other Members Have Threatened the Informer.

By Evening Herald Jason Wiles Washington, Sept. 21.—John J. Knox, assistant attorney general of New York, was selected to have charge of all the prosecutions of the so-called blackmailing syndicate to-day.

It was further agreed that the government's chief witness, Frank Clegg, who has made a confession of his part in the blackmailing and robbery one of Mrs. Emma Kipper of Philadelphia, has been threatened by other members of the gang. Because he refused to testify and his present whereabouts are being kept secret until the case comes up for trial.

We have no just found out now that does not have a New York end," says S. Bruce Bielsch, chief of the investigation bureau, after today's conference. "All of them trail in the east. There are still more cases of James arrests all of which we have in New York. They occurred in the east and were out of the operations of the investigation. There are undoubtedly a great many other offenses which are not as yet on record, a great many blacked down without conviction. There are several laws by passed as protection officers or threatening the persons in investigation under the state law, so far found in the blackmailing investigation have been violated. The Main is the other organization does not have any connection with the criminal relations.

DEMOCRATS GREETED BY RECORD-BREAKING CROWD AT FARMINGTON

(Special Dispatch to Evening Herald.) Farmington, N. M., Sept. 21.—The Democrats held a monster meeting here last night, in fact it was the largest political meeting ever held in this county. The crowd was twice the size of that which arrested the Republicans a few days ago and the enthusiasm knew no bounds. Seven of the fifteen candidates on the Democratic slate were present and made speeches, although the principal speakers were Hon. A. A. Jones and Hon. W. B. Watson.

Well-nisted Republicans assert that Jones will carry this county by double the normal majority and that safe majority will be returned for all the candidates on the Democratic ticket.

The candidates left Farmington yesterday for Gallup, where they will speak tonight.

Hearing of Express Companies Postponed

(By Evening Herald Leased Wire) St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 21.—Justice James D. Elliott in the United States district court here today issued a new writ replacing that recently filed, while postponing the hearing until Saturday, Sept. 24, on the injunction of the express companies for a temporary injunction restraining the prosecution of the original action in the South Dakota supreme court against the putting into effect of the interstate rates ordered by the interstate commerce commission.

Unavoidable delay in the serving of papers and the necessity of securing two other United States judges to sit at the hearing resulted in the adjournment of the hearing from Monday until Saturday.

TRYING TO PROVE FOUNDRY TO BLAME FOR MAN'S DEATH

Attorney for Widow of Worker
Crushed Under 5,000 pound
Casting Seeks to Establish the Management's Responsibility

Efforts to show negligence on the part of the company were made yesterday at the inquest into the death of Mr. McLaughlin, who was crushed to death by a 5,000 pound casting cylinder at the Albuquerque foundry yesterday.

As said yesterday was helping to load the casting when it dropped. He was unable to get out of the way and was mashed beneath the casting. At noon every bone in his body was broken and he died instantly.

The instant Justice concluded before Justice Charles H. Craig and jury, and was adjourned until 10 a.m. today.

Attorney McLaughlin, of Denver, represented the widow of the victim at the inquest, and so did his testimony and cross examination of the company's employees. The trial of the foundry workers, the defense was recessed this afternoon in order to send for a witness.
